ADDITIONAL RETURNS.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 10.—New Hanover county Worth's majority about 700; in Robinson county, 200; in Richmond, majority not known, but considerable. Worth ahead in Bladen. As far as heard from, Holden carries Columbus by about 80 majority.

Washington Items—Wirz Hung.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—A dispatch has been received at the Treasury Department announcing the death from accidental gun-shot wound of William Johnson, only brother of the President and late Collector of Velasco, Texas.

Wirz was executed this morning. He died without exhibiting emotion or fear, and protesting his innocence.

The findings of the court convicting him included the charge of conspiracy the names of Davis, Benjamin, Cobb and Wynder.

U. S. Senator Gone Up.

MONTPELIER, Vt. Nov. 10.—Jacob Collamer, U. S. Senator of Vermont, died this morning.

The President and South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The Secretary of State has telegraphed Gov. Perry to continue to exercise the functions of Governor of South Carolina until relieved by the President. The order says: Andrew Johnson regrets that neither the Convention nor Legislature has repudiated the rebel State debt, and that she seems to decline the Constitutional Amendment to the Federal Constitution abolishing slavery.

Yesterday Mr. Seward telegraphed Gov. Perry, by the President, stating that the early adoption of the Constitutional amendment was deemed peculiarly important, and especially desirable with reference to the general situation of the Union. President Johnson's opinions, before expressed, had undergone no alteration.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Sales cotton amount to 3,000 bales at 51 to 52 cts; flour declined; wheat firm; corn declining; pork unsettled; whiskey firm; naval stores quiet. Gold 46¼ premium.

The Army.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The available strength of the army exceeds one hundred and eighty thousand men, of which about one half are on the east side of the Mississippi river.

North Carolina—The White House.

Washington, Nov. 10.—To-day members of the late North Carolina State Convention and others from the old Commonwealth paid a visit to the President. Judge Read, in behalf of the convention, told what had been done, including the repeal of the secession ordinance, the prohibition of slavery, and the repudiation of rebel debt. The Convention ask Congress to repeal the test-oath, and thought it proper and respectful that their petition in that behalf should pass through the Executive's hand, with the hope that his magnanimity would induce him to add to it some reflection which would avail with the National Legislature.

The President said North Carolina had done much and well, but something yet remained to be done to render her restoration practicable, viz: the acceptance of Congressional anti-slavery amendment to the Constitution as practically important to the successful position they so much desired. His action would depend upon events to be developed, and Holden will be instructed to continue his functions as Governor till relieved by orders to that effect.

Abandonment of Mexico by the French.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10, 11 P. M.—The Independence Belge says that it is the intention of the French Government to abandon the occupation of Mexico, beyond what is absolutely necessary. It is more apparent than ever that it is their intention to be strengthened by different acts on the part of Mexico. The Cabinet even said that at the next meeting of the French Chambers, the announcement would be made for the immediate evacuation of Mexico by the French troops.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, NOV. 11, 1865. NO. 38.

MILITARY RULE.—The Army and Navy Journal discusses the subject of continued military rule in the South with much intelligence. It asserts the necessity of keeping a considerable force in the reclaimed States, until civil law and social order are fully restored, which will not probably be for some months to come, or until the new relations of labor have been adjusted. The Journal thinks the volunteers are not the right men for this service; they are uneasy at being detained now that the war is over, and having the idea that they are to serve but a short time longer, they cannot be relied upon for discipline or orderly conduct. In many parts of the South, the volunteers are not behaving well, and the negro troops are worse than the whites. For these and other reasons, the Journal recommends that only the regular troops should be employed to garrison the South, assisted by local military; and thinks these forces will work together harmoniously, as the colored troops and white militia will not.

—The Fenian excitement in Canada still continues.

—Georgia will vote for Governor and other State officers on the 15th of the present month.

—Five regiments of British troops are en route to Montreal to protect it against the Fenians.

—The 47th Indiana regiment had a reception at Indianapolis on Wednesday.

—PRACTICAL RECONSTRUCTION—General Ewell's wooden leg.—Concord Monitor.

—An inn in San Francisco, called the What Cheer, announces as among its attractions a library of 5,000 volumes.

—A mysterious box, which had been left at a hotel in New York, exploded yesterday, killing two men and wounding nine others.

—Jacob Thompson, Secretary of the Interior under President Buchanan, has (October 19) left Paris, with his wife, for a pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

—Texas is now the only Southern State lately in rebellion which has not elected members and called a convention for purposes of reconstruction under the proclamation of the President.

—According to their arithmetics, the "Democratic" party is always gaining votes, but then the trouble is, they cannot reduce Republican majorities.

—Eight thousand six hundred and fifty bales of cotton have been shipped from Charlotte, North Carolina, to Raleigh, from the beginning of May to the end of September.

—A communication in the Augusta Constitutionalist nominates C. J. Jenkins as a candidate for the gubernatorial chair of "The Empire State of the South."

—Secretary Welles will urge upon Congress, in his forthcoming report, some enactment by which naval apprentices may, upon meriting advancement, become officers in the Navy.

—Mrs. Anthony Daringer, of Ashland county, Ohio, gave birth to two boys and one girl the other day, and all parties were doing well at last accounts. We hope that the father is included among the parties that is doing well.

—The arrival of immigrants at the port of New York numbered 9,814 during the week ending Saturday, as follows: October 28, 1,612; 29th, 959; 30th, 761; 31st, 2,234; November 1, 1,898; 2d, 1,250; 3d, 1,770.

—A colossal pumpkin of a golden hue was on yesterday received at the Agricultural Bureau, Washington city, from a gentleman, resident of Baltimore county, Maryland. It weighs 118 pounds 2 ounces avoirdupois, and is very suggestive of pies, a genial fireside and good cheer generally.

—A curious phenomena occurred in the Valley of Mexico on the 6th of October. Five large streams of water burst suddenly from the sides of the mountain, which, if they do not diminish in volume, will form a considerable river.

—A well-known Northern theatrical manager lately organized a dramatic company to perform in the theatre at Lynchburg Va. After a few representations, the hostility of the inhabitants to anything coming from the North was so apparent that the company had to dissolve.

—There appears to be a rumpus in Nashville about John Overton, a man of great wealth, who has been pardoned. Gen. Fisk, of the Freedmen's Bureau, declines to hand over the property. Gen. F. and Mr. O. are on their way to Washington.

—The Georgia Convention asks for the pardon of Mr. Tattnall, called commodore, and that his property be restored. It declares that it is the duty of the Legislature to provide for the widows and orphans of the Georgia soldiers, and also disabled soldiers.

—It is said that Secretary Seward is preparing a reply to the despatch of Earl Russell in which was proposed a commission to adjudicate the claims against each other respectively of our own and the English Government for damages suffered by the citizens of the United States and Great Britain during the late Rebellion.

—The Toronto Watchman, Orange organ, affirms that it has positive information of a contemplated invasion of the provinces; that there are now six hundred armed men in Toronto; that several members of the Government are fraternizing with the Fenian, and that the Premier himself winks at the contemplated attempt to sever the provinces from British connection.

—At a meeting of Maryland soldiers at Schuylerport, Allegany county, Md., last week, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Jeff. Davis has caused the blood of thousands of innocent men to be shed and sent them to an untimely grave, and we believe it to be the duty of our Government to hang him by the neck "until he is dead."

—As a pretty fair specimen of what a Philadelphia journalist can do, we condense from the Washington correspondence of a paper published in that city the following: Mr. Stanton is to be forced to resign; James Guthrie is to be Secretary of the Treasury; T. B. F. is to be Secretary of the Navy: Mr. C. Cushing is going to Europe to see Mrs. Gen. B. McClellan to accept the portfolio of the War Office.

—The Rebel Alabama Generals are now pretty much all reconstructed. H. D. Clayton is at home, farming in Barbour county; Alf. Baker is practicing law at Eufaula; Gallen R. Battle has opened a law office at Tuskegee; John T. Morgan has done the same at Selma; Peter Roddy has settled in Lauderdale; S. A. M. Wood is practicing the law, and Jonas M. Withers is attending to the affairs of Deas are in Mobile. They have submitted to the decree of war with a good will, and give hope that they will lend a helping hand hereafter to the advancement of the country.

THE CITY.

Corner Wilmington and Hargett streets—T. Hill.

South street—W. J. Saunders.

On motion, the Board adjourned.

J. J. CHRISTOPHERS, Cl'k.

POSTAL AFFAIRS IN N. C.—We mentioned in our last that a number of new route agents had been appointed from this and other cities in the State for the different railroads. We are able to say this morning that Postmaster General Dennison intends to revive the post offices in North Carolina as rapidly as practicable. He has just issued an order for the reopening of the following under the appointments specified:

Sedge's Garden, Forsyth county—Lewis P. Waggoner, postmaster, vice Jos. Waggoner.

Rock Creek, Alamance county—C. C. Curtis postmaster, vice W. J. Albright.

Yadkinsville, Yadkin county—Thomas Talbot postmaster, vice W. H. Rodwell.

Marshall, Madison county—Elisha Tweed postmaster, vice E. J. Tweed.

Reem's Creek, Buncombe county—Mary E. McClure postmistress.

Joyner's Depot, Edgecombe county—G. W. Griffin postmaster.

Others are soon to be announced and their bonds rapidly as fast as practicable. It is necessary, in the meantime, for the people to aid in their matter by manifesting readiness to undertake situations and perform other needful service.

SHELLING MOSS.—Our friend Watkins, living in the eastern ward, says the other day a girl called at his door and asked if his family needed "shelling help." He replied they did. "Do you have many children?" she asked. "No." "Do you have your washing done out?" "No." "Is your parlor carpeted?" "Yes." After going other questions in this manner, she turned to leave the house and said he would have to shell moss. "Can you play the piano?" he began. "O, no." "Can you speak French?" "No." "Can you sing the opera?" "No." "Can you dance the lancers?" "No." "Well, then," he continued, "if you can't do any thing else, you can shell moss!" and went the astonished maid smelling mice!

STABBING AFFRAY.—A correspondent writing to us from Cooperstown, under date of Wednesday, says:

"We have had a stabbing affair at our place today between two negroes. One of the parties perpetrated a theft against the other. The injured negro made an effort to recover the lost goods and being abused by his roguish brother, the former armed himself with an axe and attempted to kill the latter, but was prevented through the intervention of bystanders. He thereafter approached the darkey of thieving propensities to thrash him, when the other turned and stabbed him three times—once under the right ear, on the right arm, and then in the centre of the breast. The cuts may not prove fatal and up to this hour the desperado has not been arrested."

We hope P. E. J. and others will write us of all matters of interest transpiring in their neighborhoods.

BUSINESS NOTICE.—Having to pay cash for everything in the management of our business, we must do a cash business or none at all. Many of our city subscribers are in arrears and we have sent our bills until we are tired of it. We now give fair notice that the paper will be stopped in all cases where the subscription is not paid when presented. Persons at a distance, if of the class mentioned, must remit money to pay the subscription or their paper will be discontinued.

All persons indebted to the Progress office or the proprietor, by note or open account, are requested to settle the same at once.

BISHOP ATKINSON'S APPOINTMENTS.—As requested we give publicity to the appointments made by Bishop Atkinson, of the Episcopal church, for the present and next month:

Newbern,	November	26th.
Town of Beaufort,	"	28th.
Trinity church, Beaufort co.,	December,	2d.
Washington,	"	3d.
Zion church, Beaufort county,	"	4th.
Plymouth,	"	5th.
St. Luke's, Washington co.,	"	7th.
Edenton,	"	10th.
Gatesville,	"	12th.
Hertsford,	"	15th.
Elizabeth city,	"	17th.

RESPECTABLE white male and female teachers are wanted in the freedmen's sabbath school recently organized at the Baptist church. It is a home undertaking, some of the most estimable ladies and gentlemen of our city have engaged in the enterprise as teachers, and we hope others will go until the demand is supplied. The whole thing is under the direction of a very energetic gentleman, Mr. W. J. Palmer, [illegible]

FREE SCHOOL.—It will be seen from an announcement by the acting mayor that a free school for white children is to be opened under the auspices of the American Union Commission. From notices of this society appearing elsewhere, we are led to believe that it is one of the noblest to which the war has given birth. The only object underlying its operation, we hear, is to advance the educational interests of the country.

KINSEY IN THE SADDLE.—Notwithstanding his dethronement by means of the fire Tuesday night, our neighbor Kinsey is again up and in the saddle. He is now doing business where his card explains and no doubt his old customers will flock to his standard at once. He has choice goods in store for buyers.

OLD BACHELORS who cannot put on a patch, button or make other needful repairs, should consult the card of Joseph Kreth in this morning's paper. Indeed, he is a superior workman in any department of tailoring, whether in merely reinforcing old garments or manufacturing a new outfit.

CASH SYSTEM.—We must have cash for advertising, job work and subscription to the PROGRESS. We have to pay cash and must have cash. City subscribers who do not pay their subscriptions very soon, will find their papers stopped.

LONDON COUNTY.—At Kinston Holden received 167 and Worth 87 votes. A gentleman who left there at 8 o'clock, Thursday night, thinks Worth's majority in the county will be 50 to 60.

Trial of Mr. Davis.

The following dispatch is from the Herald of the 8th:

"The President yesterday received a numerous delegation of ladies from Baltimore, deputed to present a petition signed by fifteen thousand ladies, asking the Executive clemency in behalf of Jefferson Davis. Mrs. Coleman, daughter of the late lamented John J. Crittenden, addressed the President in feeling and appropriate terms, to which he responded in a most felicitous manner, regretting that public policy prevented his yielding to their persuasive and touching arguments.

"The interview was a protracted one, and on the part of the ladies was conducted with the most pleasing affability. The President, in declining the request, remarked that the judgment of the country, as well as the opinion of the leading statesmen of England, was in favor of the trial of Jefferson Davis, and that the public mind would be disappointed if the trial did not take place. He also remarked that the case involved important principles, which must be settled, and that preparations had been made for the trial, and all arrangements have been completed for the prosecution."

MARRIED.

In this city, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8th, by Rev. T. H. Pegram, Mr. PINKNEY P. HARDIE to Miss MOLLIE PRICE, both of this city.

The PROGRESS not forgotten by our friends on the occasion of the above notice, and we tender them our best wishes for a life of connubial happiness.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU for non-retention or incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Bladder or Kidneys, Disease of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit, and all Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys and Dropsical Swellings.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU FOR WEAKNESS ARISING FROM EXCESSES OR INDISCRETION.

The constitution once affected by Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmbold's Extract Buchu invariably does. If no treatment be submitted to, consumption or insanity may ensue.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

In affections peculiar to females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in chlorosis or retention, irregularities, obstructions or suppression of customary evacuations, ulceration or scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, and all complaints incident to the sex whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudencies, or in the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH,

Will radically exterminate from the system diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, and no exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in curing those unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

In all cases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above disease, it is sure to affect his posterity. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

PHYSICIANS, PLEASE NOTICE!

We make no secret of the ingredients. Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, and prepared in vacuo by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist of sixteen years' experience in the city of Philadelphia, and which is now prescribed by the most eminent physicians, has been admitted to use in the United States army, and is also in very general use in State Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.

From the American Journal of Pharmacy, May, 1865. Edited by WM. PROCTOR, JR., Professor of Pharmacy in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

"Will the Fluid Extracts go out of use owing to the high price, or can we have some authoritative modifications of the formulas by which we can make them at a more reasonable cost?"

"If the latter, shall the change be in the quality of the menstruum, or in the manner of applying it, so as to reduce the quantity requisite? Can there be a convocation of the Committee of Revision to authorize some new method or modification of the present recipes?"

With regard to the contemplated change in the quantity, or in the menstruum itself, in the preparation of fluid extracts, I would take occasion to say that in medicine the health of the patient is the great object to be gained.

The cost of material is something, but when put into the scale with human health, and often human life, it is hardly worthy of consideration at all. My Buchu (Helmbold's) will continue to be made as formerly, and if it cannot be maintained at present prices, they will have to be advanced to meet the advance in the price of material. To such as desire quantity instead of quality we would say that water is a cheap commodity, and may be readily added by the person using the medicine if he desires to do so.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I have again opened store opposite to my old stand and ask my friends and the citizens generally to give me a call. This is the time to lend a sufferer by the late fire a helping hand. I hope, notwithstanding my severe losses, to be able to give full and ample satisfaction to all who will give me a call. All kinds of goods in my line will be found at my new stand, and if prompt attention to the wants of my customers and the public generally will ensure their assistance, I am resolved that I will merit it.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH. N. C.

SATURDAY, NOV. 11, 1865.

The Election in this State.

The contest is over, but the smoke has not sufficiently cleared away to enable us to get a satisfactory view of the field.

In this county, W. D. Jones is elected to the Senate, K. Rayner, R. K. Ferrell and A. F. Page to the Commons; E. H Ray Sheriff, J. J. Ferrell, County Court Clerk, and J. N. Bunting Superior Court Clerk. This is a "strait-sect" triumph, as all the gentlemen elected were the partizans and supporters of Gov. Holden. The vote on the ratification of the ordinances of the Convention, declaring slavery abolished and the ordinance of secession of 1861 null and void, was small, though a number of persons voted against both. How they reconcile this with the oath of amnesty, in which they swore to abide by all the proclamations of the President relating to the emancipation of slaves, we can't see—it is only the fact that we have to deal with. It will only prove to those who administer and control the Government what we have time and again charged, that there are many among us who carry the amnesty oath on their lips and treason in their hearts. We do not believe that it will be long, if matters are allowed to progress as at present, before we shall hear of serious propositions to re-enslave the blacks or tax the people to pay the owners for them. We shall look to Andrew Johnson, however, and to a Republican Congress, to protect the loyal people of the South against the scheming intrigues of disaffection and treason.

Good men have been elected in this county, and good men have been beaten. B. F. Moore, Esq., one of the ablest men in the State, and a member of the State Convention, was a candidate for the House of Commons, and only received 670 votes. This, in connection with the fact that the Editor of this paper only received 510 votes for the Convention, satisfies us that talent and moral worth are not always sure of the endorsement of the masses.

Col. Russ leads his competitors for Congress largely in this county, but not enough has been heard from the district to determine the result. The contest, it is thought, however, will be a close one.

From other Congressional districts we have heard but little, we are of the impression, however, that not a single man has been elected who can take the oath. In the 2d, Clark, from the returns received, has no doubt beaten Lehman by a large majority.—Lehman can take the oath, Clark cannot.

But few returns have been received from distant counties, and the Governor's election is in doubt.—Mr. Worth leads Gov. Holden in the rail road towns with which we can communicate by wire, but as most of these were known to be strongly secesh, no other result was expected. The rural districts, it is thought, especially in the West, will go largely for Gov. Holden, and if so, he will be elected. The Vance and Davis leaders fused and marshalled their forces against Governor Holden, as they would against any other man who had denounced the war and the Confederate leaders, and hence the large vote against him.—If Gov. Holden is beaten, the same men who have done it would vote for Jefferson Davis or Zebulon B. Vance against Andrew Johnson.

There must be a great change of heart in North Carolina before Andrew Johnson, as a candidate for the Presidency, can carry it against any prominent leader in the rebellion who may oppose him. We feel confident that it is but too true that a majority prefer to vote for a rebel hero to an ultra, unconditional Union man. These things are unpleasant to those of us who want civil law and a place in the Union, but as they are true we owe it to ourself to state them. The whole people were very loyally disposed, apparently, in May and June, when the bristling bayonets of many battalions gave them gentle and constant remisders of the necessity of good behavior; but as the pressure was withdrawn the disaffected became more and more insolent, until now men, women and children, on bended knee, are imploring Andrew Johnson to restore to them their darling pet, Jefferson Davis. These infatuations may be sweet and pleasurable now, but if we mistake not they will become terribly bitter before the March winds shall have ceased their requiems. We regret to speak thus, but widespread and increasing disaffection compels us to do it. The supporters of Wade Hampton and Mr. Worth are the enemies of Andrew Johnson, and will be as long as he is the enemy of treason and foe to traitors; and when the time comes when they can strike him a blow they will do it.

Such other returns as may reach us will be given elsewhere. Meantime we beg the people to possess their souls in peace, and they will soon know all. From the returns in hand we consider the Governor's election in doubt.

THE LATE ELECTION IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Wellsburg (W. Va.) Herald, in commenting on the late election in that State, observes as follows:

The election returns, so far as received, show, throughout the State, decided gains for the Union party, though, as a general thing, there is a falling off from the Presidential vote. In this Senatorial district the result is particularly gratifying, since it was an understood thing that the Opposition were to make a desperate effort. Well, they have done their divinest, and the result shows that instead of having gained by all their exertions they have decidedly lost ground.

* * * * * *

It was considered throughout the district that this election was to test the relative strength of the Union party and of all the odds and ends of parties opposed to it; and this consideration gave no peculiar interest to the election, and made the victory the more gratifying, inasmuch as it was hardly contested.

THE REACTION.—The N. Y. Times says:

"There can be no doubt that the country is tired and disgusted with the extreme and extravagant style in which the claims of the negro have been pressed. By a very active and peremptory school of political and social reformers, the claims, interests, courage, and character of the whites have been made wholly subordinate to those of the blacks. There must, in the nature of things, be a reaction to all this."

Where is Andrew Johnson?

We have said time and again that Andrew Johnson would not fall into the trap set by Southern traitors and Northern Copperheads, and find they enemies of the Government in the organization of a new party to renew the attempt for its overthrow. Andrew Johnson will adhere to the great Republican party that elected him—the only party in the country that is unconditional in its support of the National Government. Secession and treason is yet strong in the South, as the ballot-box, at the recent elections in South Carolina and other States, show; but in the North the friends of the Union have swept everything before them. The clash of arms has ceased, and it may not be necessary to draw any more blood to preserve the life of the nation, but morally and politically the war has all to be fought over again. The South is subdued, not conquered. Treason has been silenced for the time but it is not extinct.—Andrew Johnson is not only the uncompromising friend of the Union, but he is the uncompromising enemy of treason, and he will see to it that no State gets back into the Union and has a representation in the National councils until her skirts are cleared of all taints of treason and disaffection. Rebel debts must be ignored, slavery must be abolished, and all the protection of the laws extended to the blacks, and the constitutional amendment ratified, before any State can get a representation in Congress or secure an equality in the Union. Secession may rear its head, traitors may vote for such leading rebels as Wade Hampton in preference to ultra Union men, but the return they will get for all this will be military rule and all the rigors of martial law; and it is just what they ought to have. It is hard on the truly loyal, but treason and disaffection must be crushed out or the Union is lost.

There was a strong disposition in North Carolina, Georgia and other States to shoulder the rebel debt, and South Carolina, we believe, has done it, but on this, as on other questions, Andrew Johnson has put his foot down firmly. He says plainly that no State can return to the Union or have a representation in Congress until the people have washed their hands of treason, and any proposition to assume, recognize or pay the rebel State debts is the worst kind of treason. The North Carolina Convention finally acted wisely on this matter, but it was a source of mortification to all loyal men that this body had to be driven into it by the declaration of the President that the rebel debts must be repudiated.

Speaking of the President in connection with the rebel debts of the States, the National Republic says:

"It appears that the President has found it necessary to convey to the Provisional Governor of Georgia, through Secretary Seward, a hint like that he gave to North Carolina the other day. So many of the Southern people are possessed of the notion that their States are as much bound to pay the debts incurred by them in fighting against the Government as loyal men are to pay the cost of defending it, that President Johnson finds it necessary to give them a reminder of the fallacy now and then. It may be that the money furnished Booth and Atzerodt to defray the expense of murdering Vice President Johnson forms some portion of the rebel debts, and it can hardly be expected that the President would sanction acts that might compel loyal men, his own personal friends among the number, to assist in paying the debts thus contracted. And if he would not approve the payment of the assassin's bill who aimed at his own life, we are sure he would not authorize the reimbursement of the expenses of assassins who struck at the life of the nation. He cannot see the loyalty of those who attempt to step in through the door of amnesty he has thrown open, with a bundle of unpaid accounts in their hands for services rendered to treason. It has been said by Richmond papers that the political parties have so urgently claimed the ownership of the President it is difficult to ascertain who he belongs to; but we can assure them of one thing, viz: he is not owned by rebels, and no traitor hand will be allowed by him to be thrust into loyal pockets. If any of them imagine that our President has become oblivious to the great facts of the rebellion, or forgetful of his duty to the country, they would do well to divest their minds of that capital error, and bring fruits meet for repentence, instead of offering to the Government the shrivelled husks of treason."

The Eight Hour Movement.

During our recent visit to Washington we witnessed a great demonstration in favor of the eight hour system. On Wednesday night of last week, the workingmen of the National Capitol had a torch-light procession and display which has seldom been excelled. All the branches of mechanical industry were represented, and the procession numbered many thousands of persons. And not only is this the case in Washington, but all through the North immense demonstrations are being made in favor of the eight hour movement. The workingmen argue that eight hours should constitute a lawful, legal days' work—that ten hours to labor does not allow them any time for recreation, mental improvement or social intercourse; and that, for the benefit of themselves and families, employers should yield to their reasonable demands. What the result of the movement will be no one can tell; but one thing is certain, the great heart of the workingmen of the North is enlisted in the reform movement.

Speaking of the demonstration in Washington, the Intelligencer says:

"The procession on Wednesday night in this city disclosed an uncommon earnestness of conviction and purpose among the working people of this community. Our exchanges bring us evidence of the like zeal in nearly all the cities and in many of the villages of the country. There is no doubt that a widespread feeling is prevalent on the subject, and there is too much sound philosophy at the bottom of the question for a general movement such as this not to result in something practical. But we incline to think, while commending the remarkable good sense shown in most of the arguments which has been used, that something of the reform would be lost by attempting to inaugurate it in particular localities before the general mind of the country was prepared for a change of present customs.

Would it not be well to hold a national convention, each delegation to be composed of an equal number of employers and employes, for the discussion of principles and the cautious inauguration of measures, first, of such only as could operate co-extensively with the Union?

The principles for the sake of which this reform is advocated, must apply equally to all classes of laborers, including the largest class of all, the agricultural workingmen. While less proverbially slow to adopt innovations, and yet their co-operation would almost insure the change of custom which is the object (for it could not be an incident) of proposed changes of the laws.

The success of the movement doubtless depends greatly on its sweeping compact and powerful opposition, which, indeed, cannot put down what is founded on right and truth, but which fails only because it subjects a vehement and painful urgency, too exuberante to be wise and too zealous to be practicable, however unsuccessful, until after the supervention of a reaction and a repose."

Authors of the Apostle's Creed.

The precise origin of this simplest and most ancient of all the creeds is involved in some uncertainty; and has long been a matter of dispute among learned theologians. It is at least certain that its universal use in the Church may be traced back, if not to the Apostolic age itself, yet to the immediately succeeding; and there is a very old tradition that each of the twelve articles of the creed was composed by an Apostolic author. It is said that the twelve, assembled in council, before dispersing themselves to preach the gospel throughout the world, to frame the symbol or watchword of the Christian Church; and it will be interesting to many of our readers to know the Apostle to whom each article is ascribed. The tradition is as follows:

St. Peter—"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth."

St. Andrew—"And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord."

St. James the Great—"Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary."

St. John—"Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried."

St. Thomas—"He descended into hell" [or, "He went into the place of departed spirits," which are considered as words of the same meaning,] "the third day he rose from the dead."

St. James the Less—"He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty."

St. Philip—"From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead."

St. Bartholomew—"I believe in the Holy Ghost."

St. Matthew—"The Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints."

St. Simon—"The Forgiveness of Sins."

St. Judas Thaddeus—"The Resurrection of the Body."

St. Matthias—"And the Life everlasting. Amen."

Cholera in New York.

From the New York Evening Post we gather the following about the cholera in New York:

The number of deaths from cholera which have occurred up to this morning on board the steamship Atalanta, from London to Havre, according to the report of Dr. Walser, the deputy health officer in charge of the lower quarantine, is sixteen; the number of cases of sickness from cholera, according to the same report, is seven, and there are also five cases of small-pox on board.

The following are other facts reported by Dr. Walser:

The vessel was in London seven days, and when she lay there all was well on board. The city was as healthy as usual. The Atalanta received forty passengers from London, and steamed for Havre, where she lay two days and received the remainder of her passengers, more than five hundred. During the passage sixty cases of sickness from cholera occurred, with the number of deaths already reported—fifteen.

According to the statement of the Atalanta's surgeon, seven deaths had occurred among the passengers previous to their embarkation at Havre.

The following is the official report of Dr. Walser, the physician in charge of the hospital ship at lower quarantine:

The steamship Atlanta was twenty-three days from London and Havre; had forty-eight cabin and five hundred and sixty steerage passengers. She was in London seven days, while all were well on board. London was as healthy as usual. Received forty passengers on board and steamed for Havre, where she lay for two days and received the balance of her passengers. During the passage there were sixty cases and sixteen deaths from cholera. According to the statement of the doctor of the ship, seven deaths had occurred among the passengers previous to their embarkation at Havre. The vessel is crowded and in a filthy condition.

WENDELL PHILLIPS.—The Chicago Tribune expresses its views of public men in the following elaborate simile:

"If President Johnson is at the brakes and Sumner is at the driving-wheel of the train of progress, Wendell Phillips performs the double function of the Drummond light and the cow-catcher. We judge him to be more effective, however, in knocking cattle off the track than in casting a strong light forward into the darkness. It is a necessary consequence of his position and functions that he should occasionally hit some perfectly respectable gentleman, and leave only an interesting family of widows and orphans to mourn his untimely loss."

—Bermuda occupies a prominent place in the American memory, as being the entrepot of the blockading business, and the rallying point of the yellow fever prisoners. Having made all that was to be made out of the divisions in the republic, it is now anxious to "make an honest penny" out of the re-united nation, and is about to appeal to the British home government to include Bermuda as one of the participants in the benefits to be derived from any new Reciprocity Treaty between the United States and the British American Provinces. There must be brass enough in Bermuda to run a score of brass foundries.

GENERAL SAMUEL COOPER.—We have recently seen a paragraph going the rounds of the press, both North and South, which stated that nothing is known or has been heard of the whereabouts of Gen. Sam Cooper, late Adjutant General of the Confederate States, since the surrender of our armies. Gen. Cooper, we learn, is at the residence of Mark Alexander, Esq., in Mecklenburg county, Va., where he has been ever since the surrender of General Lee. His family have recently gone to Maryland. The General is in good health, and enjoys that repose which he has not known for several years.—Lynchburg (Va.) Republican.

THE CUBAN SLAVE TRADE.—Intelligence from the city of Havana shows that a cargo of eight hundred Africans was recently landed in the harbor of San Cristobal. There was a pretense of seizure by the Government officials, but only one hundred and forty-seven of the whole number were really secured. The others were run off and sold. The traffic is carried on through the connivance of some of the authorities, who share the profits with the slave traders. The men who "back" the trade are among the millionaires of the island. The present Captain-General is to be removed on the 15th of this month, possibly it is said, on account of his being compromised in the slave trade.

About Jeff. Davis—His Trial.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

Some very sapient newspapers are giving out that the trial of Jefferson Davis is to take place very soon before the Supreme Court of the United States. Now, these newsmongers would take so much trouble as to refer to the Constitution of the United States, they would see that the Supreme Court has no original jurisdiction, and cannot possibly try Jeff. Davis, unless on an appeal from some other inferior court of the United States. He must be tried by a jury, and in the State where the treason was committed.—There is no doubt that the Administration have fully determined that this trial shall take place. The only points heretofore unsettled have been the time and the place where Richmond, Alexandria or Norfolk, as the places where United States District Courts have been held for the District of Virginia, afford a choice of venue, but it is doubtful whether a fair and safe jury could be impanelled in Richmond, Norfolk, in the other cities named. Virginia is in the circuit of Chief Justice Chase, and this great political trial would properly come before the Circuit Court of the United States for that circuit, which includes Maryland as well as Virginia. The trial, however, may be held at Baltimore, where no difficulty in getting a jury would be likely to arise. The constitutional requirement that he must be tried in a State where the crime was committed, would doubtless be met by the fact that the Rebel chief invaded Maryland, where he levied war against the United States. The only trouble now is a want of time for this great trial, which would occupy many weeks, whereas the Supreme Court has to convene in Washington for its regular term just five weeks from to-day. The session of the Circuit Court, for this circuit will not occur before April next. So the chances of a speedy trial for the ex-President of the ex-confederacy are very brilliant.

GENERAL LEE.—Henry Ward Beecher is said to have said in a late sermon:

"I must read, except with disapprobation, much that has been written with regard to the state of things in the South. I was pained with many of the votes that were passed upon Gen. Lee upon declining the presidency of a college. When our annals come to be written it cannot be covered that he has committed himself to a cause of great wrong, rebellion; but, since that time, his course has been, on behalf of those whose service he engaged, been devoid almost of reproach. When has lived who could have been more modest? Who could have been more true to his word and duty? And when called by his fellow-citizens to the presidency of a college, these carping spirits indulged in. Must he not do something for living? For my own part I was thankful that he was called to the presidency, and I have strong belief that the young men who graduate there will in the main be true and faithful to the government he lives under, and that he will set a noble example. This injurious criticism is not generous, we are the stronger party, and if we show magnanimity anywhere we are to show it."

MATRIMONIAL MUDDLE.—Levi Lincoln, of New Orleans, had a wife and had lived with her six years, when he says, he discovered that she had married, one Reade, whom she had married seven years before she became Mrs. Lincoln. Reade had left her, and cohabited with a widow, Mrs. Lincoln about a year, he made her wife. In the meantime she had applied for a divorce from his other wife, which was granted, although she alleged in her petition that her first consort, Reade, had a wife when he married her, and that Lincoln had driven her out it from the first. She now applies to the Supreme Court in New York to have the decree of divorce set aside, and the application is still pending. It is rather an odd mixture of spouses.—Lincoln has two wives, and one of his wives has two husbands, and one of her husbands has two wives.—The only party concerned who is not fully supplied with husbands is that Lincoln last married, who, it may be said, has no husband at all.

THE CAPITOL AT WASHINGTON.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times, in his letter of the 4th, writes:

"Many of your readers who visit Washington this winter will be pleased to see the progress that has been made towards the completion of the Capitol.—The most noticeable of the new features is the portico on the north front, supported by ten columns of the Corinthian order. The last of these beautiful columns was raised to its position yesterday.—Each column is composed of a single piece of marble, and the capitals are beautiful beyond description. The interior of the dome is complete with the exception of the great painting at the top on which the artists are now busily at work."

GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT.—Henry Ward Beecher was in Washington last week and had an interview with the President. It is said that the President was very frank in his statement of pure convictions. He declared that no State in rebellion ought to be permitted to resume its former status and position in the Union till they had first adopted the constitutional amendment, and refused to extend protection to the freedmen.—When asked what he thought of President Johnson, Mr. Beecher is said to have answered, emphatically, "The President is right."

TETE-A-TETE.—Locked in a tete-a-tete—Locks half its charms, but the words of either party are not mated with tainted breath. Sozodont is the only article that will assure this desideratum by keeping the mouth pure, the gums healthy, the whole set of teeth undefiled. It literally embalms the teeth in substance, preserving it from decay, and the breath sweet. Use it daily. Will find it a pleasant luxury.

A New York correspondent says that there are $30 millions of unclaimed deposits in the Savings Banks of that city. These millions have been accumulating for a century or more in New York, and are regarded as part of the capital stock of the banks. There is not the remotest probability of any one claiming the immense fund or any portion of it.

MURDER.—Mr. King, agent of the South Carolina railroad at Orangeburg, was recently shot and killed by a negro in that town. The deed was said to be unprovoked.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good;" and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

Wearing of the Green.

The following is the celebrated song which created such intense excitement throughout Great Britain, and for the Incorporation of which in his piece Mr. Boucicault's play of "Arrah na Pogue" had to be withdrawn from the London stage:

I.

Oh! Paddy, dear, and did you hear
The news that's going round?
The Shamrock is forbid by law to Grow on Irish ground.
No more St. Patrick's day we'll keep,
The color can't be seen,
For there's a bl o'y law against the
Wearing of the green.
I met with Nappy Tander, and he took
Me by the hand,
And he said, "How's poor ould Ireland,
And how does she stand?"
She's the most distressful country that
Ever you have seen;
They're hanging men and women there for
"Wearing of the green."

II.

Then, since the color we must wear is
England's cruel red,
Sure Ireland's sons will ne'er forget the
Blood that they have shed.
You may take the Shamrock from your hat
And cast it on the sod;
It will take root and flourish there,
Though under foot it's trod.
When the law can keep the blades of grass
From growling as they grow,
And when the leaves in summer time
Their verdure dare not show,
Then I will change the color
I wear in my caubeen;
But till that day, plese God, I'll stick
To wearing of the green!

III.

But if at last the color should
Be torn from Ireland's heart,
Her sons with shame and sorrow from
The dear old soil will part.
I've heard whispers of a country
That lies beyond the sea,
Where rich and poor stand equal in
The light of freedom's day.
Oh! Erin must we leave you, driven
By the tyrant's hand?
Must we ask a mother's welcome from
A strange but happier land,
Where the cruel cross of England's
Thraldom never shall be seen,
And where, thank God! we'll live and die
Still wearing of the green!

Northern Elections.

The people of many of the Northern States voted on Tuesday last, and the Republicans have swept them all. Of the result the Herald of Wednesday says:

The returns received of the State elections held yesterday are barely sufficient to show that the republicans are again victorious, and that the vote everywhere is unusually small. The canvass in this State has been unattended among the people with the usual animation, and much of its interest is therefore lost. The republican majority in the State will be from fifteen to twenty thousand, while in this city the democratic majority has dwindled down from thirty-six thousand to twenty-five thousand.

The proposition to make our State bounty loan of thirty millions of dollars a twelve year debt, instead of ordering its payment next year by the levying of a special tax, has received the almost unanimous vote of the people.

In New Jersey, although the result on the State ticket is still in doubt, a republican majority has unquestionably been returned to the Legislature, by which the ratification by that State of the slavery prohibition amendment to the national constitution is secured.

Massachusetts, Winconsin and Minnesota, which also elected State officers yesterday, went largely for the republicans, as was of course anticipated.

In Maryland an election was held for county officers and to fill certain Congressional, legislative and judicial vacancies. Mr. Thomas, the republican candidate for Congress in the Second district, composed of the first seven wards of Baltimore city and Harford county, was successful.

—An orator, in appealing to the "bone and sinew" said: "My friends, I am proud to see around me to-night the hardy yeomanry of the land, for I love the agricultural interests of the land, and well may I love them, fellow-citizens, for I was born a farmer—the happiest days of my youth were spent in the peaceful avocations of a son of the soil. If I may be allowed to use a figurative expression, my friends, I may say I was born between two rows of corn."—"A pumpkin, by thunder!" exclaimed an inebriate chap just in front of the stage.

—Intelligence from Madagascar states that a serious disturbance had taken place on account of the payment of the indemnity to the French Government. The populace assembled under the windows of the Queen's palace, where they raised loud cries for the expulsion of the French Consul and all the Catholic Mission. The nobles then interfered, and promised the people that they should receive satisfaction.

—The Herald Washington despatch says:—The fifty dollar counterfeit greenback is such a successful piece of workmanship, that about a dozen copies of it have been paid over the counter at the Treasury. The veteran Treasurer, General Spinner, acknowledges himself puzzled to distinguish good from bad in this case.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

DEVOTED TO THE INTEREST OF THE

Merchants, Mechanics and Farmers.

Sufficient encouragement having been received to promise the success of this paper, (a specimen copy of which has heretofore been laid before the public,) its regular issue will be commenced about the 1st or middle of November.

The Semi-Weekly will commence about the first of December, and the Daily about the first of January.

The publisher is in the receipt of the most improved material, and has secured the services of a corps of experienced contributors, so that neither labor nor expense will be spared to make the "Journal" alike attractive in appearance and useful and entertaining in all the elements that go to make up a first class periodical.

It is earnestly requested that subscriptions and advertisements be sent in at once, as no paper can be sent to others than subscribers unless pre-paying the postage. As a medium for advertising the "Journal" will have no superior, as its circulation promises to be widely extended among all the industrial classes of society.

Send in your names and subscriptions at once.

Terms:

Weekly, one year, $3 00; six months $2 00; Semi-Weekly, one year, $5 00; six months $3 00; Daily, one year, $8 00; six months $5 00; one month $1 00.

Certificates of the various articles are first put into envelopes, sealed up and mixed; and when ordered are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, thus giving all a fair chance. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the Dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of the jewelry on our list for ONE DOLLAR.

Send 25 cents for Certificate.

In all transmissions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the certificate, paying the postage and doing the business, 25 cents each, which must be enclosed when the certificate is sent. Five certificates will be sent for $1; 12 for $2; 30 for $5; 100 for $15.

Agents—We want Agents in every Regiment and in every town and county in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed 10 cents on every certificate ordered by them, provided their remittance amounts to One Dollar. Agents will collect 25 cents for every certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, either in cash or postage stamps. BRYAN, BROS. & CO.
